

Spreading joy, optimism and inspiration to millions.

thejoyteam.org

mission The mission of The Joy Team is to spread joy, optimism and inspiration to millions. Pure and simple.

strategy We intend to carry out this mission by helping people shift into a positive frame of mind through the incredible power of positive words.

tactics Advertising works for breweries, airlines, cell phone providers, grocers and coffee roasters. Why not joy? By starting an ad campaign for happiness on billboards, we'll be uplifting people all day, every day for a month with each billboard.

results The shift in attitude and mood people will experience from seeing the uplifting and inspiring messages created by The Joy Team will increase joy and optimism in millions. And thereby making the world a happier, healthier, kinder and more productive place.

why billboards

With billboards we can reach people throughout their day, whether they are traveling to work, taking a stroll at lunch, going shopping, taking their children to the park, traveling, or doing one of the thousands of activities that people do everyday.
